

STAND-PAT POLICY RAISES TENSION

British Cabinet Members Are Closely Guarded Result Attitude on MacSwiney.

Hunger-Striking Cork Mayor Unable to Speak, Even in Whisper.
London, Sept. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Tension in cleaned since it became known that the government would stand pat on its MacSwiney policy, and precautionary measures were multiplied late today. The members of the cabinet are all closely guarded and travel as light as possible. Armored cars, which to outside appearance seem to be ordinary automobiles, have been fitted up for the ministers. Even press representatives are barred from certain offices. Thirty policemen are on guard during the day time and this force is increased at night. Secret service agents are stationed about the government offices and visitors who are not known are denied admittance.

A reporter seeking an interview with Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, was denied entrance. He refused to leave and lingered to catch Sir Hamar, who he had to lunch.

When it was seen the reporter was adamant, he invited him inside. It was explained that Sir Hamar, dare not take a chance by stopping out side the door way of his office for conversation.

Mayor "Much Weaker."

London, Sept. 9.—Tereance MacSwiney was reported "much weaker" at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon by the physician attending him at the jail where the attending staff of 10 took it on a hunger

He had a high fever and was unable to talk, even in a whisper. It was announced.

The twenty-ninth day of MacSwiney's hunger strike started at noon today.

ESCH DEFEATED BY

EACH DEFEATED BY LAFOLLETTE CANDIDATE

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 2.—Representative John J. Each, of LaCrosse, co-author with Senator Cummins, of Iowa, of the recently enacted law forbidding the nomination from the Seventh district, according to returns compiled last night by the Milwaukee Journal, of a LaFollette candidate for Congress.

His victorious opponent was Joseph E. Beck, of Vilroque, who was supported by senator Robert La Follette.

In addition to Each, two other Wisconsin representatives were defeated, both by former congressmen. Clifford W. Kenton, of Racine, lost to Henry A. Cooper, of Racine, in the First district.

With returns received from 1,355 precincts out of 2,379 in the state Senator Irwin L. Lenroot had a lead of 39,154 votes over James Thompson, who was supported by Senator LaFollette in the republican race for the senatorship nomination. Lenroot had 111,465 votes and Thompson 68,155.

In the republican gubernatorial contest, Wm. C. Little, of Eau Claire, continued to lead John J. Blaine, of Boacabel. Representatives renominated without opposition were: John C. Voigt in the Second district; John C. Klutas in the Second district; David G. Glasen in the Ninth, and James A. Frear in the Tenth. In the Fifth

QUAKES REGISTERED
Seismograph at U. C. Records

Distinct Earth Tremors.

Sanita Clara University, Cal., Sept. 9.—Duganizing at 5:45, earth tremors were registered at the seismograph here, which lasted approximately 2 minutes and 15 seconds. The shocks were not more than one second or half. The shock was but faintly felt here locally. It was severe enough, however, to attract attention aside from the seismograph record.

On the seismograph, the tremor registered east, west, north and south, and during the shocks, the pen had a velocity of about 100 millimeters.

Felt at San Jose.

San Jose, Cal. Sept. 9.—A sharp earthquake was felt here at 8:55 a.m. today; the tremor lasted but a few seconds and caused intense excitement. Hundreds rushed from business houses and homes into the streets.

No damage was reported in the city proper, and so far no reports of damage have come from the outlying districts.

Tick conservatory, on Mount Hamilton, reported that the quake registered distinctly on the seismograph there and apparently ranged from the west.

According to observers there, the seismograph record was the most marked registered in years.

New Orleans, Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—An epidemic of yellow fever broke out in Guatemala because of the presence of yellow fever at Quirigua. In the interior, was lifted today. It was announced.

Yellow fever experts who arrive on the American steamship Saramacca, from Puerto Barrios stated the outbreak had been detected in time and stamped out.
